DEMOCRATIC "DISCLOSURES."

When Glover entered confidently and anxiously into the work of mounting about for Republican frauds, he had not gone far before he met with disappointment. He was after Republicans, but caught Democrats. He sought Republican corruption, but struck a seepool of Democratic corruption which was ranker by far than any he could hope to find in the Republican party. A year ago, Mr. Noyes, the Democratic State Treasurer, of Pennsylvania made great promises during the campaign, that when elected he would "disclose gross mismanagement of the State finances on the part of the Republicans." He was elected, and time passed on, but the disclosures were not forthcoming. He was urged to begin the investigation, harrow up Republican corruption, and thus dig a grave for the party. Mr. Noyes began the investigation under the weight of compulsion. He had no faith in his campaign story; and after a few weeks of labor, he reported that the management of the State finances by the Republicans was in every respect faithful, and not a dollar had been misused. But this was not all that Mr. Noyes and his committee found. Glover-like, he caught the wrong man. Instead of proving fraud against Republican officials, he learned to his disgust and humiliation, that John M. Bickel, ex-Democratic State Treasurer, now residing in Philadelphia, had over-issued State bonds to the amount of $100,000 during his term. But the investigation did not end here. Mr. Noyes also discovered much to the annoyance of the Democratic mousing committee, that Mr. Bickel's official bonds were also missing! He not only issued $100,000 of State bonds for his own use, but in some way managed to steal from the State department the bonds he gave for the years when this over-issue was made. This is Democratic faithfulness, the work of that party, which, the platform of the Democrats of the First District says, "the people can alone look for relief."

But the work of disclosing Democratic rascalities does not end with Pennsylvania. Look at Missouri, a case which the Janesville City Times professes to be ignorant of. Democratic corruption has brought about an alarming crisis in that State. The State Treasurer, Gates, has robbed the treasury of every cent it contained, and it is now ascertained that his official bonds are bogus. Under Democratic rule the State has been brought to the condition pictured out by the St. Louis Post in these words: "It is now becoming a settled conviction in everybody's mind that the Commonwealth of Missouri was never at so grave a crisis in her civil history. Each day comes laden with new rumors of greater and worse rascality, and, worse than all, a far more desperate state of affairs is now tacitly admitted on all sides than the Post charged at the beginning of its revelations. People are astonished and amazed that such gross wrongs should have remained so long hidden from the public eye."

The State being thus bankrupt, it is said the only relief possible is to call an extra session of the Legislature to authorize a special tax upon the people in order to meet the deficiencies.

Ohio has lost almost as much as Missouri by Democratic mismanagement and rascality. The aggregate amount of $647,395 has been lost to twenty-one counties in that State through defalcations by Democratic county officials, and only $7,560 of the amount has been recovered! It is surprising too, that in these twenty-one Democratic counties, only five of the twenty-three defaulters have been punished. These are specimens of Democratic honesty and Democratic justice.

TWO RIVAL CITIES.

There is a lively and an interesting fight going on between the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. To an outsider, it may be proper to call the rivalry interesting, but as between the two cities the feeling is bitter and the contest a disgraceful one. The spirit of jealousy now existing between these thirty towns, and the attempt of one to outdo the other, are illustrated by the effort to hold an agricultural exhibition in each city at the same time. The cities are only seven miles apart. Both are ambitious and proud. Each has its solid men who have immense local pride. St. Paul was a pretentious city before Minneapolis was incorporated, or had a name known outside of the State. But Minneapolis grew rapidly. Its vast water power gave it enterprise, strength, and wealth, and a wide reputation. Railways connected it with

SICKENING SIGHTS.

Presented in Memphis—Eighty-one Deaths—A Riot Feared.—The Situation at Other Points.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 3.—The condition of our city to-day begs description; While the list of new cases reported is only about 60, the death rate has amounted to 86, only two of which were from other causes than yellow fever. Bodies were discovered to-day in out-of-the-way places, which, from appearances, have been dead several days. One peculiarity manifested among many of the sick is a desire to seclude themselves, while among the poor there is an unreasonable fear of being sent to the hospital or the infirmary, hence the discoveries of to-day.

Among the new cases are the Rev. Geo. C. Harris, Dean of St. Mary's Episcopal Cathedral; the Rev. C. C. Parsons, Rector of St. Mary's; Dr. S. H. Brown; L. Izener, of Menken Bros.; Dr. A. R. Hodges is reported in a dying condition.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The Mayor of Memphis has telegraphed the Secretary of War that he fears there will be riots in that city, and asks that two companies of troops be sent there. Under the Knott amendment to the army appropriation bill passed by the Democrats last session, that will be impossible, as the use of troops for any such purpose is strictly prohibited.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 3.—The city sexton reports thirty-six deaths in the past twenty-four hours. One physician reports sixty new cases. It is thought the number of new cases will go far above other days since the fever appeared. Physicians say they can no longer make reports of new cases for want of time and the large increase of new cases.

The Howard Association is calling in God's name for physicians from all parts of the country to come to the relief of the stricken ones of Vicksburg. The number of physicians here is small, and they are broken down and several are sick.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss., Sept. 3.—There are some sixty cases of fever among the citizens here. The doctors pronounce it bilious fever of a serious nature. The deaths of A. W. Goodrich and Isaac Tandler, citizens and Wm. Mackin, a refugee, have occurred. A great panic prevails, and people are leaving in large numbers.

HORRIBLE.

An Excursion Steamer Run Down in the Thames and Six Hundred People Drowned.

LONDON, September 3.—The excursion steamer, Princess Alice, returning from Gravesend, this evening, with about eight hundred passengers, was run down off Barking about 9 o'clock by a screw steamer. It is reported that between four hundred and five hundred persons were drowned.

The Princess Alice was struck amidships and sank almost immediately. The number of persons drowned is variously estimated at from 500 to 550. The higher estimate is the latest, and is given by the London Steamboat Company, owners of the Princess Alice. The company's wharf is beset by crowds of people anxious to hear of relatives and friends, who were passengers on the ill-fated boat. The drowned include an extraordinary proportion of women and children. Several survivors speak of having lost as many as three, five and six children.

They describe the water as covered with hundreds of shrieking people. The captain and nearly all the crew of the Princess Alice were drowned. They had no time to lower the boats, and there but few boys on the steamer.

All the police of Woolwich town and arsenal were engaged last night labelling the corpses, chiefly women and children, which completely fill the board room at the steamship company's office at Woolwich.

A passenger who scrambled on board the Biwell Castle, says she threw ropes to people struggling in the water.

The number lost is still uncertain. Comparisons of various accounts seem to show about 550.

The Princess Alice was a paddle-wheel steamer, with raised saloon. Her gross tonnage was 251, and that of Biwell Castle 1,376.

THE DELAVAN SCANDAL.

DELAVER, Wis., Sept. 3.—Great indignation is felt and expressed here over the dispatch from Milwaukee in the Chicago Tribune of Saturday, the 31st ult., which makes a sensational statement that "the institute scandal is to be reopened, and that the public, State, and local boards are all disgusted with the revela-

FROM MADISON.

Special dispatch to the Janesville Gazette.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 4.—At the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars this morning, Phil. Allen, Jr., was re-elected Worthy Chief Templar, and D. Kanouse Grand Worthy Counselor. A motion before the Grand Lodge that Grand Worthy Chief Templar be required to give his whole time to the business of the order receiving a salary thereof of twelve hundred per annum, without taking action thereon the Grand Lodge adjourned till afternoon. Should this motion carry Mr. Allen will doubtless refuse to accept the position.

Senator J. G. Blaine passed through this city going south this morning. A party of Madisonians boarded the train and paid their respects to him, accompanying him to Beloit where they will meet and pay their respects to President Hayes, accompanying him as far as Madison this afternoon. President Hayes arrived at Beloit on a special train, an hour or so ahead of the regular train. Mr. Blaine arriving there about the same time. Both gentlemen addressed the people of that city for a few moments, after which Mr. Blaine went on to Chicago on a special train, and the President's car was attached to the regular train north.

DEPOSED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The House of Bishops met in public session this evening and unanimously deposed McCoskey of Michigan.

POLITICAL.

MUSKOGEE, Wis., Sept. 3.—The Republican Convention met here to-day, and re-nominated George C. Hazleton for Congress.

A dispatch from Washington says that Rainey and Smalls, the two colored representatives in Congress from the South, are both confident of re-election. Rainey says the Republican majority in his district is as large as ever, and he is sure of his re-election. He says, however, that the Democrats may count him out. He also thinks that Smalls will be re-elected, and that a Republican may come from the Charleston district. Smalls says that he has no doubt of his own election, but he assumes to think that he may be cheated out of his election by the Democrats.

—Last Sunday's Chicago Times gives the following among its items from Kenosha: "Mr. F. F. Prentice will go into the drug business in Janesville, his old home. This is a loss that will be sorely felt among our young society people, as also on the street where he has gained an enviable reputation for business enterprise and integrity."

THE STATE FAIR.

The State Fair at Madison opens next week and promises to be a grand success in all its features. There will be excursion trains running in from all directions, to accommodate the public. There will be a large and fine display of stock, some of the most prominent and largest breeders in the West are preparing to send some of their best stock there. The display in other departments is to be equally fine. There are to be plenty of speedy horses for the lovers of the turf. The horticultural department also promises to be fine. In fact there will be everything to attract, interest, and instruct, and all who can should see for themselves the combined exhibition.

SHORT AND SORE.

The City Council met last evening in accordance with the adjournment of the previous evening.
The regular order of business was dispensed with. Ald. Lawrence, of the Finance Committee reported in favor of the payment of the bill of P. Heffron for $31.88, and the clerk was instructed to draw an order on the fifth ward fund for its payment. A bill of S. S. Church for $6, for work in the fourth ward was referred to the Street Committee.
Adjournment was then taken until to-morrow at 7:30 o'clock, a half hour earlier than the regular hour.

THE DIAMOND FIELD.

The Providence Club will come to Janesville on Conditions—The Games Yesterday.
The Providence Base Ball club have expressed their willingness to come to Janesville and play an exhibition game on the grounds of the Mutual Base Ball club, provided they can have a guarantee so that the arrangements can be perfected for the game. The Providence club has made an enviable record this season, and especially since Johnny Ward commenced pitching. He is conceded to be the best pitcher in the United States, and his many admirers in this vicinity would gladly see him at his work again on the old grounds. The Providence nine is such a strong one, and has acquired such a reputation that it seems as if those who enjoy base-ball should hasten to embrace the opportunity to secure them for a game here.
The Providence club whitewashed the Chicagoes yesterday 8 to 0. The game was won by straight play, the Providence club showing up far stronger than the White Stockings.
The Bostoners were whitewashed yesterday 3 to 0.
The Dubuques defeated the Forest City of Rockford by 9 to 4.

WHERE TO BUY CLOTHING.

M. C. Smith & Son have been receiving a mammoth stock of gents' clothing, cloths, etc., for fall trade. Strangers in visiting the city often remark that they don't see how it pays to carry such a large stock of such choice goods, but if they only watch the way the customers rush after them, and the extent of territory covered by their trade their wonder would cease. Smith & Son have by their enterprise and accommodating ways, built up a large business, and they evidently propose to keep it, and they have marked goods down to bottom prices. They are always ready and willing to show their goods, and tell their prices and those contemplating a purchase in this line should not fail to give them a call. They have but one price and that a low one for rich and poor alike, and their stock is one of the largest and most complete in the West, and rivals many of the large houses in Chicago. Their stock includes clothing, cloths, hats, caps, and gents' furnishings goods, trunks and traveling bags.
Smith & Son have not forgotten the boys and have laid in a special stock for them also. They are also the sole agents for the Wilson shirt, which is too well and favorably known to need further comment. The firm have in fact the best of everything in their line, and at the prices which they have put them at, they are meeting with ready sales.

A FAIR FAIR.

A Stroll Over the Grounds and Through the Buildings.

The Sights and the Seers.

The Fair grounds to-day presented strong attractions to many. The displays had not been fully arranged at the hour when the sight-seers commenced to arrive, but by noon in most of the departments everything was in readiness. There is more or less sameness in fairs as in circuses, and yet there are always some distinctive features to excite interest.

THE HORTICULTURAL HALL.
Is particularly attractive. There is a fine display of fruits and flowers, and there is hardly room enough to accommodate the exhibitors. Fruits of all kinds temptingly arranged, flowers rare and beautiful, floral decorations, together with samples of the fruitage of the farm and field, make this building showy and attractive. In one corner of the building are numerous proofs of good housewifery in the way of canned fruits, preserves, and edibles. This department is in fact the best arranged of any, and presents the largest and most showy exhibit. Moving along into

THE MAIN HALL.
One finds also much to interest. Here the handiwork of the ladies also occupies a prominent place, and excites general interest. There are some fine specimens of needlework, fancy articles, worsted work on canvas, embroidery, etc. Opposite is a fine display of toilet articles, perfumery and knick-knacks, from Heilmann's drug store. Wheelock also has a fine show case of tableware and china. From the ceiling hang some beautiful carpeting from Smith & Bostwick's. The sewing machine men are as busy as bees showing the workings of their several machines. There are represented the Wheeler & Wilson, Wilcox & Gibbs, Domestic and American. Farther along are a fine display of carriages, sleighs and harnesses. Hodge & Bachholz and S. L. James are among the prominent exhibitors. The whole show is very fine indeed and reflects great credit on home manufactures. Among the noticeable of the new inventions in this line is the

"THE RANGER"—ECONOMY AND SAFETY.
The idea that nothing new appears under the sun is set aside in the improved "coming wagon" or two horse wagon, exhibited by Mr. Ephraim Kimbles, of Kimbles, Pike County, Pennsylvania, the main feature being the reinforcing springs, a very ingenious arrangement by which the buggy can be transferred from one capable of carrying six hundred pounds in weight to twelve or fourteen hundred pounds, and this change is made in a twinkling, by the use of a hand lever, made double and the moving of certain adjustable iron supports just over the elliptical springs. The matter is so fixed that it will not move out of place when the driver desires to change it—and the spring is in perfect position. That this will be a success there is no doubt, and will be a fortune to the inventor and agent, for in one sense, there are two vehicles embodied in one, and only a slight increase in the expense. This is the first one ever exhibited in Wisconsin, and the attention of farmers and pleasure seekers, who want a splendid two-horse turnout, is directed to this pleasant and grand combination of genius and comfort, which are calculated to regulate the capacity according to the load. While these springs have a freedom not known to any other vehicle yet constructed, if the road is rough the wear and tear is greatly reduced, and ease and comfort attained by its use. The devices are all simple and easy to manage, and it is believed will come into general use. We expect to hear good reports from this welcomed improvement. Particulars can be obtained by conferring with A. W. McKown, Honesdale, Pennsylvania.

THE ART GALLERY.
In this department there is not a large display, but those pictures which are on the walls, are in the main, quite superior. The elegant painting, "The Magdalene," belonging to Thor Judd, commands special attention. W. B. Waugh, of Philadelphia, is the artist. The same artist is also represented by a portrait and by a very pretty landscape view of Lake Como. There are some fine specimens of penmanship, and pen drawings. Prof. Silbee has some good work exhibited, among them being a pen drawing of Niagara Falls, and several portraits in ink. Prof. Frank Fellows, who is known far and near as a Commercial College expert and a skilled penman, has some specimens of his skill which do him great credit, they consisting of card writings, fancy designs, and pen drawings which are indeed excellent. Mr. H. S. Covey though claiming nothing as a professional, presents some work which rivals that presented by any. He has a family record which is finely executed, and also an ante-lope which is strikingly life-like, and it seems hardly possible that it could have been executed by a pen. He also has some fine specimens of fancy and plain card-writing, and some excellent practical penmanship. Among the crayonings are some fine pictures done by Mrs. T. B. Fiedel years ago. One represents a scene at Niagara falls, and another the home of a fisherman.

FARM MACHINERY.
From the finer to the coarser is but a step. The utensils and machinery for tilling the soil and providing for the culture and gathering of crops, always excites interest among those who attend fairs. The display embraces almost everything needed by the farmers. There are mowing, reaping, and threshing machines, windmills and cultivators, plows and wagons. Among the prominent exhibitors are Thomas Murray, James Helms, J. K. Bem's and A. J. Hendrickson. All of the machinery was not on the grounds this morning and the display has not been fully arranged, but promises to be a varied and excellent one.

SHOW OF STOCK.
There is a goodly show of horses and cattle. The number of speedy horses is much better than usual. The races have been arranged now as follows, the entry book having been closed. To-morrow in the 2:35 class are entered Jim Lape, Opal, Whitewater Belle, Ride, and Gallatin. In the three-minute race to-morrow are entered Lady Fairfield, Aloppo E. and Gypsy. The next day there will be a free-for-all, in which Tempest, Lady Mack and Resolute will start, which will make an exciting race. In the 2:50 class, Friday afternoon, will start Jim Lape, Greytone, Opal, Gallatin, Whitewater Belle, and Josh. Other races may be arranged among local horses.

Among the sheds and in the pens are a fair display of stock, there being several fine stallions, and some good cattle.

THE EATING BOOTHS.

are plenty, and on every hand are chances to spend the money. The main eating booth, and the only warm meal place, is conducted by the First Methodist church society, the members of which are busily providing for the wants of their customers.

TO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME.

The morning will be devoted to an exhibition of stock. At 9 o'clock draft horses will go to the ring. After that the roadsters, double or single, mares or geldings, will be followed by an exhibition of draft mares, and a show of American bred draft stallions, closing the morning's exhibition.

After dinner there will be the address by General Shields, after which there will be fun on the track among the fast-flyers of the 2:35 and 3:00 classes.

FRIDAY'S PROGRAMME.

In the morning there will be a show of stallions for general agricultural purposes, mares for general purposes, carriage coach or park horses, single or double, roadster stallions. After dinner there will be a sweepstake for draft stallions with five of his get, another of stallions for general purposes, with five of his get by his side; roadster stallion with five of his get by his side. At 2:30 o'clock there will be a free-for-all followed by the race for the 2:50 class.

FIRE FLIES.

About 7 o'clock last evening an eagle-eyed citizen passing by the Court House noticed as he thought smoke rising from the roof. He caused the loud tooting to be sounded, and the engines speedily rolled out and steamed up. It was discovered that the smoky look was only a swarm of flies, who were hovering about for roosting place. The boys thought it best not to put a stream on them as they were not insured.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.
There was only a fair house last evening to welcome Jennie Hight and her excellent comedy company. The amusement goes have been deceived so often during last season that they are ashy as a coy maiden but after the happy introduction of last evening, they will doubtless be more free to extend their patronage to a company so worthy of it. "The Wild Woodland Flower" which was rendered by the company last evening is a new play, produced here for the first time. It is a pleasing comedy, with a light plot, depending little upon scenic effect, and entirely devoid of any dramatic climaxes. The incident's run along smoothly and pleasantly. A little stronger tinge of the farce would be a help to it. In spite of its weak points, however, the play as a whole was very acceptable. The company is a remarkably well-balanced one, there being no poor timber in it. All of the parts being well taken. Miss Jennie Hight is vivacious and sprightly, and has of late improved greatly in her dramatic renderings. She has a charming individuality which never tires the public, and folks enjoy seeing Jennie Hight, because she patterns no one. She is strongly supported. W. H. Southard is a stand-by, who has long played leading parts on the best stages of the country. Miss Eunice Goodrich also showed herself strong last evening. She is a young lady whose talents were first brought out in Chicago in amateur theatricals. Pure love for the profession has induced her to take to the stage, and with her enthusiasm and with marked natural ability, she is developing into a more than ordinary artist. The other members of the company were well up in their parts. The play to-night promises to be stronger and better than that of last night, it being "La Cigale," or the "Grasshopper," which is well spiced with fun and frolic, together with a dash of romance and sentiment, and a sufficient heavy plot to keep the interest unflagging. With the company is Mr. Wolf, the leader of the orchestra, who last evening gave a violin solo, which was heartily enjoyed. He showed himself wonderfully skillful with the bow, and to hear him alone is a treat of itself.

Looking at Bismarck one would not suppose that he ways such almost omnipotence. He is calm and cheerful, wary and watching. He doesn't look different from other preparations. But it never fails in what it undertakes. Calm and agreeable, it is death to parasites which attack the teeth.

Why is Bismarck like Spalding's Glue? He sticks and holds on forever.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. Beyond the Reach of Human Skill.
Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balsam is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a complete hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere.
